Dear Dr. Resnikoff:

Thank you for your letter of February 28th. I would be very happy to join the Working Group on Information Technology and trust that we can find a time and place to which I can accommodate my own schedule.

You referred to the use of "on line electronic devices" for the meeting. Too bad we do not already have a civilian national science Arpanet that would greatly speed up the very process of scheduling and exchange of correspondence.

At any rate, I await further word from you.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
